About NARI

The National Association of the Remodeling Industry equips remodelers nationwide with resources to succeed and build trust with consumers. NARI members’ annual sales are nearly three times the industry average because of the knowledge, network and support that they receive as members. NARI’s website, remodelingdoneright.com, contains a searchable list of NARI members that homeowners can use to find a NARI remodeler near them. For more information, go to nari.org or call 847-298-9200.
